During "Public Comment," the Chair will ask for public comment. If you wish to speak on the topic, you are welcome to do so as long as your comments are relevant to the discussion. Public comment is your opportunity to express your opinion. The Study Advisory Committee (SAC) will be able to listen but will not engage in a dialogue with any speakers.

To ensure fairness to all speakers and to allow the efficient conduct of meetings, speakers must observe the following guidelines:

- Individuals must limit their presentations to three minutes or less. The Chair will modify presentation times, as deemed necessary.
- Try not to repeat remarks or points of view made by prior speakers and limit comments to the matter under consideration.

In order to maintain a comfortable environment for all those in attendance, the use of signs, clapping, cheering or booing or any other form of verbal or nonverbal communication is not allowed.
